

Farm bingo statements

I give you milk.	Dairy cow
I give you eggs	Hen
I give you wool	Sheep
I have cloven hooves (I have 2 toes)	Dairy cow, beef cow, sheep and pig
I can have horns	Sheep, dairy cows and beef cows can all have horns. Usually their horn buds are removed at an early age.
I use my feet for scratching	Hen
I eat grass	All
I eat silage (pickled grass)	Dairy and beef cow
I chew the cud (regurgitate food to chew again)	Cows and sheep
I have four teats	Dairy and beef cows have four teats, sheep have two teats and pigs have many
My baby is called a lamb	Sheep
My baby is called a piglet	Pigs
My baby is called a calf	Beef and dairy cows
I have to wear tags in my ears so the farmer knows where I live	Sheep, cows and pigs all need to wear ear tags to identify where they come from and have passports as well.
I have feathers on my body	Hen
I have a tail	All of them have tails